Membership application process for Central Ohio Kennel Club:

Step 1: An applicant must attend at least one Membership meeting and be introduced as a visitor.

(An application form may be obtained at this meeting.)

Step 2: The First reading of the completed application will take place at the next Membership meeting.

(Applicant must be present at this meeting.)

Step 3: At the subsequent Membership meeting, the Second reading of the completed application will take place.

(Applicant must be present at this meeting.)

After the Second reading of the application is done, the applicant will be asked to step out of the room while voting occurs.

Discussion may follow and then a vote is taken by the membership in attendance.

The affirmative vote of 2/3 of the members present shall be required to elect the applicant for membership.

Step 4: If the applicant is approved, the applicant will be invited to return to the meeting where the approval as a new COKC member will be announced by the Membership Chair. If the applicant is approved and returns to the meeting, the President will obtain from the Membership Chair a New Member Packet and present the packet to the new member.

If the applicant is denied membership, the Membership Chair will step out of the meeting and so inform the applicant.
